ADAM EL MIHDAWY REACHES CAREER HIGHEST RANKING

May 2015 – Mexico City, Mexico

Loriet Player Adam El Mihdawy reached his career highest ranking on April 27, 2015. Adam's climb started in Leon, Mexico where he won three rounds of qualifying matches and two rounds in the main draw making it to the quarterfinals. The following week, Adam made it to the quarterfinals of the Guadalajara Challenger.

After Guadalajara, Adam went on to play Queretaro where he lost in a tough semi-final match. From Guadalajara, Adam made it to the quarterfinals in singles in Mexico City and made it to the semi-finals in doubles. Adam continued his quarterfinals run in Cordoba. In June, Adam will go on to play Manzanillo before returning to the United States.
